HEDGEROW
Now the hedgerow casts its shade,
The sparse, the tall, the neatly laid,
With champions and parsley lined,
And honeysuckle intertwined.
Here a butterfly may rest,
And blackbirds build their sturdy nest,
And little creatures in the green,
Can creep along and not be seen.
Regard again and celebrate,
The hedgerow, with its beauty great,
Which in pollution, ever rife,
Breathes oxygen, to give us life.
